

In the successive chapters of the financial and economic collapse, the levels of vulnerability of the Lebanese are revealed.

There are a number of risks that start with the collapse of the health sector and the environment, and end with the threat of famine and war. obituary,

We the Lebanese, the extent of the destruction inflicted on the country as a result of the accumulation of the rule of this political class,

This is because they have coalesced and agreed among themselves and with the financial and commercial mafias to transform

It is distributed evenly among them, and it is referred to

The state and its capabilities, the future of the people and their savings, to the end

Some of them decide war and peace and even the foreign policy of a foreign country.

For many decades, politics and its polarizations have been in the service of interests attributed to sects

There are very narrow circles in the ruling authority in Riffa and its regional leaderships and hubs, but it has an impact its components and divisions. The waste accumulation crisis in 2015 served as a model for this reality, as

The poles of the authority gave priority to distributing shares among them, not finding the most appropriate environmentally and healthily for the Lebanese. This is how they made mountains and rivers of garbage, transforming the environment and residential areas into Infested places threatened by diseases. In the energy and telecommunications sectors, quotas were wasted

Tens of billions of dollars aggravated the public debt and the severe economic situation. alone this

Narrow interests create politics, internal divisions, and even pole alignments

"Progress" is a political project to build the state and society based on the priority of the public interest and social justice, and extricating the country from a bitter reality created by this entire political class,

People pay the high price from their savings, their jobs, their future and the future of their children.

In light of the successive collapses, and in the midst of the politicians screaming and slandering them with responsibility and accusations

What has become of the country, it is incumbent upon us, as citizens worried about the future of our people, to take the initiative

We organize to provide alternatives, and to forge a promising future that the Lebanese deserve.

Here is the hope for the desired change, here is "progress"!

In the following, we summarize our positions regarding urgent and current issues in our country in 12 basic points:

First, it will advance the Lebanese economy, establish social justice and a state that alone is able to The Taqaddam party aims to crystallize alternatives in policies and personalities on issues of
